

The Rising Tide

The Rapid Aging of Boston's and America's Homeless:
Policy Implications and Solutions

Tuesday, April 27, 2010 • Breakfast: 8:00 a.m. • Panel: 8:30 to 10:30 a.m.

Policy Implications and Solutions

Dr. Culhane will discuss his recent research on the aging of the homeless population and costs and implications of homelessness, and Mark Hinderlie will discuss Hearth's recent study on the importance of service enriched housing to ending elder homelessness.

Panelists will address issues surrounding the magnitude and urgency of the problem, and the costs of inaction vs. action.

Seating is limited so please respond to Annie Garmey at 617-369-1555 or agarmey@hearth-home.org.

For driving directions, public transportation information, and parking suggestions, visit the Boston Foundation website at www.tbf.org.

Hearth is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the elimination of homelessness among the elderly. To learn more, visit us at www.hearth-home.org.

The Rising Tide

The Rapid Aging of Boston's and America's Homeless:
Policy Implications and Solutions

Hosted by Hearth, Inc. at
The Boston Foundation
75 Arlington Street, 10th Floor
Boston, Massachusetts

Tuesday, April 27, 2010
Continental Breakfast: 8:00 a.m.
Forum: 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Please join us on Tuesday, April 27 for breakfast and a panel hosted by Hearth, Inc. at The Boston Foundation. Hear from experts on housing, elderly issues and homelessness about the growing crisis of homelessness in older adults, its policy implications, and models that represent proven, cost effective solutions.

WELCOME

Geeta Pradhan

Director of Programs, The Boston Foundation

MODERATOR

Deborah De Santis

President and CEO of the Corporation for Supportive Housing

PANELISTS

Dennis Culhane

Professor at the School of Social Policy and Practice,
University of Pennsylvania

Aaron Gornstein

Executive Director of CHAPA
(Citizens' Housing and Planning Association)

Mark Hinderlie

President and CEO of Hearth, Inc.

John O'Brien

New England Regional Coordinator for the United States
Interagency Council on Homelessness

Laura Henze Russell

Founding Director of the Elder Economic Security Standard Project